AMONG THE MINERS.

Ohio Coal Diggers Very Peculiarly Situated.

DONT KNOW WHERE THEY ARE AT

The Mine in Ohio and the Hopper in Pennsylvania and the Scale Is Different in the Two States-Marchers Arrested at Sandy Creek, Pa.-Probable Setttiemeat in West Virginia-Elsewhere.

COLUMBUS, O., Oet. 14.—Since the strike among the coal miners renewed interest is being taken in the organization by the coal diggers of the various districts. Many applications are being received at headquarters for the organization of new locals and the outlook for a much stronger organization than ever is regarded as very good.

Information has been received from the Kanawha district, West Virginia, that a number of miners have resumed work at the scale price. President Ratchford is holding massmeetings in West Virginia and it is said he is meetwith marked success in his efforts to organize the miners of that state.

It is understood that the constitutionality of the new mining law in Pennsylvania requiring the weighing of coal before it is screened, is questioned. It has been the custom to screen the coal and then weigh it. President Farms of this state has gone to East Palestine to investigate a peculiar situation. One of the mlnes there is located in Ohio, while the hopper is in Pennsylvania and the question is whether the miners shall be paid the Pennsylvania or Ohio scale price. President Farms will also investigate the claim that operators at Coshocton refuse to pay the scale price for day labor.

MARCHING STRIKERS STOPPED. Even the Members of the Band Were Placed Under Arrest. PITTSBURG, Oct. 14.—The deputy sheriffs at the Dearmit coal mines made a raid on the strikers at Sandy Creek yesterday and arrested 15 men, including the members of the brass band. The strikers were marching on the public road and were halted by the deputies about a quarter of a mile from the tipple. The band refused to stop playing and the entire party was placed under arrest without any resistance.

The members of the band took their arrest good naturedly and played their instruments as they were escorted from the railroad station to the sheriff's office. Chief Deputy Van sald the men were rioters and he feared trouble. This is denied by the strikers.

Superintendent Dearmit claims that the three mines of the company are now running to their fullest capacity.

Trying to Adjust Their Differences. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 14.-A conference between the miners and five of the Kanawlia coal operators will be held at Montgomery tomorrow, when an effort will be made to adjust their differences. President Ratchford, who is at Montgomery, stated over the telephone that he was confident the trouble between operators and their men would be adjusted at this conference.

Miners' Strike in Colorado Settled. TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 14.—The strike of the 500 miners in the Hastings mine of the Victor Coal and Coke company has been settled by a compromise.

MYSTERY REMAINS UNSOLVED. No Arrests Yet Made la the Double Tragedy at Canden, N. J. CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 14.-The mystery surrounding the murder of Mrs. Ella Zane and her daughter, Mrs. Sarah M. Shaw, at their home early Tuesday moining, remains unsolved. The police authorities, together with two Philadelphia detectives, are busily engaged in following up various clews, and they express the belief that the murderer or inurderers will soon be apprehended.

The police do not think the murder was committed by professional burglars and are inclined to the theory that the women were killed by a relative or some one well known to the family, who was familiar with the house and entered with the expectation of getting

The authorities have modified to a great extent the suspicions as first enertained against Eli Shaw, the son and grandson of the murdered woman, and who was in the house at the time the crime was committed.

REVENUE CUTTER CORWIN BACK. She Brought News From Alaska and the Bering Sea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—The United States revenue cutter Corwin, Captain W. J. Herring commanding, 10 days from Bering sea, dropped anchor in the bay yesterday evening. She brought down from the north Dr. Sheldon H. Jackson, United States general agent of education in Alaska; Lieutenant D. H. Jarvis from the eutter Bear, Whaler J. A. Peters of the wrecked whaler Navareh, and Richard and Rollo Camden, who went up on the Eliza Anderson, but who returned to wait until spring before going to Dawson.

Dr. Jackson has been spending the summer in the Yukon river valley in the interest of the United States government. He reports the reindeer herds as doing finely, 150 trained deer being ready for freighting.

The oatter Corwin after earrying dispatches to the eutter Bear, sailed from St. Miohael's on Friday, Sept. 24. Only two parties of miners remained at St. Michael's and they were expecting to start in a few hours for Dawson.

On the 26th the Corwin called at St.

On Friday, Oet. 1, the steamship Humboldt arrived at Dutch harbor, with Colonel Randall, U. S. A., and a detachment of United States troops, and left on the 3d for St. Michael's and left on the 3d for St. Michael's. The cutter Bear was at St. Michael's, waiting to convey the steamship Portland on her return trip with miners and their gold.

The new building for the industrial mission sehool at Unalaska, established and erected by the Women's Home Mission society of the Methodist Episcopal church of the United States, is so far completed that the mission has moved into it. NOT NEEDED IN HAWAII. The Cruisers Yorktown and Wiceilng to Be Recailed.

New York, Oct. 14.—A dispatch to The Herald from Washington says: It is definitely announced at the navy department that when the eruiser Baltimore leaves for Hawaii, probably next week, she will carry with her orders to the Yorktown and the Wheeling to go to Mare island. The withdrawal of these two gunboats means that the administration is satisfied that the Baltimore and the gunboat Bennington will be sufficient to protect American interests in the islands in the future. It also indicates that the temporary need which called the two gunboats to Honolula has expired and that the president feels safe in directing their return,

It is frankly admitted that the only reason the authorities had for sending the gunboats to Hawaii was because of a fear that the Japanese residents in the islands, instigated by their government, might precipitate a riot which would wreck the Dole administration and place them in power, unless cheeked by United States forces.

The authorities are now satisfied from the reports received from Admiral Miller that all is quiet in Hawaii.

WANTED TO MOB A SICK MAN. Kentuckians Feared That Yellow Fever Was in Their Midst,

Sr. Louis, Oct. 14.—A special to The Republic from Mayfield, Ky., says: An unknown man, trying to make his way from Memphis to Louisville, was put off a train here yesterday. He was later found lying near the cemetery unconscious. He was taken to the poorhouse and revived, only to rave about yellow fever.

A panie ensued and he was at onee of armed men charged upon the stable with the intention of burning it and the sufferer to prevent the spread of supposed yellow fever. The owner of the stable, with leveled revolvers, warded off the mob and the sick man was visited by physicians who found he was undergoing chills and malarial fever.

Valuable Express I'ackage Lost. Cincago, Oct. 14.—Somewhere between Omaha and Denver a package eontaining $14,000 has been lost. The money was sent by registered package by a bank in Chicago to a financial in-stitution in the west. Inspector James E. Stuart of the postoffice and his men have been hard at work on the case several days, but their endeavors can trace the money westward from Chicago only as far as Omalia. At that point all records of the small fo one are lost The authorities refuse to give either the name of the bank sending the money or the one to which the package is consigued.

Result of the Indianapolis Election. Indianapolis, Oet. 14.—The official and unofficial returns of Tuesday's election show the vote for mayor to be: Taggart, Democrat, 20,188; Harding, Republican, 16,180. Taggart's plurality over Harding; 4,008. The probabilities are that the majority may be inereased. Taggart's majority over all is at this time 2,955, there being six mayoralty candidates. Evangolina Cisneros Safely Reaches New York.

PREVIOUS REPORTS NOT TRUE.

Her Escape From Cuba Was One of the Most Dariag Feats Ever Carried Out -A Public Reception Willi He Teadered Her Saturday Evening - A Spaalsh Judge Asks Her to Return to Prison.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Evangelina Cossio y Cisneros, who recently escaped from a Spanish prison in Cuba, was a passenger on the Ward line steamer Seneca, which arrived yesterday from Havana. At quarantine Miss Cisneros asked to be excused from saying anything about her imprisonment and escape, as she has not yet recovered from sea-sickness, from which she had suffered during her entire passage, and which kept her in her stateroom during the whole voyage. On the passenger list she was registered as Miss Juana Sola. She was traveling under the care of a gentleman who accompanied her from Havana.

When the Seneca reached quarantine the towboat J. Fred Lohman, with several newspaper representatives and four wemen, went alongside the steamer, and atter the health officer's inspection was over they went on board and accompanied Miss Cisneros to this city.

The Cuban girl was seen later in the city, and particulars relative to her escape from Havana were obtained. She made her escape in man's attire. Her coming aboard the steamer was franght with danger, but the young girl walked past the Spanish detectives as fearlessly as if she had never known danger of any kind.

In order to leave Havana by steamship it is now necessary to procure a passport before buying a ticket. Three days before Miss Cisneros sailed, that is, while she was still in prison, a pass-port was procured for Senor Juan Sola, and stateroom No. 3 was reserved for the young man. The Seneca arrived at Havana at 6 o'clock in the morning.

As soon as the vessel had tied up to her wharf two Spanish detectives came on board and stationed themselves at the head of the gang plank. They remained there all day. By 6 o'clock all the passengers booked were on board. So were several visitors. Friends of So were several visitors. Friends of Miss Cisneros saw that they were well cared for and given plenty to eat and drink. After a time the chief of police came on board. He was also fed and wined.

Just before the vessel cast off her lines a slim young fellow came rushing down the wharf in an open carriage. He carried almost no baggage He was dressed in a long frock coat, light trousers and a huge sombrero hat. He walked up the gang plank with a swagger, and in answer to an inquiry, gave the name of Juan Sola. The detectives examined his passports and told him to go aboard. Juan Sola was Miss Cisneros disguised as a man.

Sola at once went to his stateroom, from which he did not emerge until Morro castle was passed. Then Juan Sola came on deck, but in woman's garb, and as Juana Sola. In some mysterious manner the name on the purser's book was changed. The voyage toward freedom was without event.

The Cuban junta has issued an invitation to the people of Greater New York and vicinity, interested in Senorita Cossio y Cisneros and the cause of Cuba to attend a reception to be tendered to the rescued young woman at Dehnonico's on Fifth avenue Saturday night. The reception will really be a demonstration of sympathy with the struggling republic and speaker of national reputation will address the gath-

BICYCLE FATALITIES.

Alarmiag Increase of the Number Throughout Great Hrltala.

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Bicycle casualties, fatal and serious, are increasing at an appalling rate. Many towns of the first and second class throughout the country are placarded with warnings, cautions and stringent rules for the government of riders issued by the municipal authorities. A statistical authority has figured it out that more people have been killed and injured through wheel accidents for the year ending Sept. I than in all the railroad accidents that have occurred in the United Kingdom for eight years. The epidemic, for so it may be called, is no respecter of persons, the victims coming from the tenement house as well as from the

An Alarming Increase in Number in New Orleans.

NINE IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

During the Same Time There Was Twenty-Eight New Cases Reported to the Hoard of Health-Thirteen New Cases at Mobile, but No Deaths - Reports From Other Infected Places.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 14.—Yesterday was the record smasher in the number of deaths in a single day from yellow fever since the sickness was first reported in New Orleans. It is difficult to find the cause except in the fact that concealment, neglect and rebellion against the authority of the board of as a peer of Ireland, and the blow to health have made it difficult for the physicians to give proper attention to eases. There have been nine fatalities reported during the past 24 hours. Heretofore the highest number of deaths in any one day has been six. There have been 28 new cases.

At the board of health there was some discussion among the gathered physicians as to whether the disease had assumed suddenly a more virulent form or whether an aggregation of circumstances had sent up the list of deaths. Prominent doctors say they do not believe the disease has become more malignant in type. They believe that the fact that on some days there have an engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio been four or five deaths, on succeeding days no deaths, and then four or five again, goes to show that the fever has been as eccentric before us it is now.

The record of deaths and new cases for the past 24 hours are as follows: DEATHS.

ABANDON HOPE.

Republican State Officinis See No Chance For Victory This Time-Happy Bradlevites.

FRANKFORT, KY., Oct. 12.—The Republican State officials and Republican politicians generally seem to have abandoned hope of carrying Kentucky this fall. They are clinching what little hope they have left to Mayor Todd and some of their legislative and local tickets, and Mr. Bailey seems to be practically out of the question with them at this date.

This is virtually admitted by Republicans here and the Bradlevites in anticipation of a sweeping Democratic victory in the State are shrugging their shoulders and wondering if McKinley and Hanna have not discovered by now that they picked up the wrong string when they took up Hunter and Deboe.

The meeting of Democratic leaders at the conference of the Democratic State Central and State Executive committees at Lexington to-morrow will disclose a feeling of confidence on the Democratic side that has not been so manifest in this State for two years past. Col. Forrester Telis How They Have Manlpulated the Pen Chair Contract.

[Louisville Capital.]

The Sinking Fund Commissioners of Kentucky have seen fit to dispute the statement that the Martin chair contract is "malodorons," and as the Capital is not in the habit of making careless statements, or of allowing its assertions to be called in question, it will have to cite n few particulars just as an evidence of

In the first place, in the Senate Journal, page 665, Treasurer Long states that A. D. Martin contracted to pay $5 per per dozen for chair No. 10. When the bids were being made for the chairs, Mr. Long furnished the bidders with the estimate of cost of each chair, and he stated that this No. 10 chair would cost $4.09, counting the labor at 15 cents per day per convict. Mr. Long further stated that counting the labor at 35 cents per day the cost would be $5. But Superintendent Chamberlain subsequently furnished an estimate of the cost of material at $3.54 and on a chair requiring a little more lumber and the same amount of labor, the chairs being almost identical, Mr. Long stated that the cost of labor was $1.20. This would make home near Cowan, Fleming County. chair No. 10 cost $4.74. This estimate is too low and $5 was too low, but Martin contracted to pay $5 per dozen.

will explain why they subsequently made | lated sugar for $1. a secret contract with Martin to let him have the chairs at $4 per dozen.

If they can not explain this, perhaps the Capital can assist them. Martin put no money in the business; when the time came for him to make his first payment he wanted to raise money; he went to a big Cincinnati house and sold a thousand dozen No. 10 chairs at $4 a dozen, 20 per cent. below cost. The Sinking Fund Commissioners reduced the price to $4.

But that is not all. They began to no knob on top while the posts in No. 10 their position independent. have knobs on top. No 10 was contracted for at $5; by a secret agreement the price was reduced to $4, and that not being a sufficiently good thing for Contractor Martin, the State made him the same thing under a new number, 410, and charge him $3.66 for it, Mr. Long testifying that the materials cost $2.46 and the labor $1.20. Before issuing any more campaign statements, the Sinking Fund Commissioners will do well to explain this little business. *

There are dozens of such cases in this rotten chair deal. But one more will be sufficient for this time. Martin contracted to pay $10 a dozen for chair No. 105, and agreed that he should not take more than 25 per cent. of the total number of chairs in one month, of this and three other styles. This provision was put in because the Commissioners said that No. 105 was too cheap at $10, the former contractors having paid $14.021.

Martin to take another chair not in his gallou; all $5 whisky now goes at $4, all contract at a price fixed at $8 99. This $4 whisky now goes at $3.50, all $3 whisky chair is No. 100 and is just like No. 105 in now $2.50. every material point. That it is practically the same chair in cost ls shown by Mr. Long, who furnished the bidders the estimate of the cost of the material in No. 105 at $7.16, and he subsequently testified that the material in No. 100 cost $6.96. In other words, Martin is allowed to have a chair that cost 20 cents a dozen less than the one he contracted for, at $1.01 less than the price he agreed to pay, while the one he agreed to buy was so cheap that the quantity that he might buy was limited, while by a subsequent sccret contract he is allowed to buy all he chooses to order of a chair exactly like it in this issue, as may be seen by reference in appearance, it being the same design to the advertisement of Mr. John Duley, in overy material point, and costing, by attorney in fact for Mrs. Martha J. Col-Mr. Long's statement, only 20 cents less, lins, executrix of the late H. H. Collins. street this week, but was resting someat a reduction in price of $1.01.

RAINBOW CORSETS.—We have an entirely new Corset to show you to-day. It's glove-fitting and comfort-bringing. It's a Corset of which we are proud. Its special feature is the transverse stitching running around the body instead of perpendicular, as is usual. It actually fits at first wearing; you don't have to "break lt in." It's made of heavy coutil, with each whale-bone, back, waist and abdomen stayed with figured satteen. Extra front steel, top of corset lace edged. It was not made to sell for 39c., but that's the price we've marked it for Friday.

RUGS.—Some more carpet samples for the housekeepers who want some genuincly good floor coverings for a little money. Yard and yard and quarter lengths of three-ply strictly all wool Lowell Carpots for 25c. They'll cover the bare spot at the door, before the stand or dresser and give double the wear a cheap rug twice the price would do. They are all in neat designs and pretty colors and they are all bargains, decided bargains. Harvest is not always in the field. A little cash here today will reap a rich reward.

CLOAKS.-A great assortment of new and distinctive effects, in many instances only one garment of a kind, the character of which, as regards style and fit, wrrrants us to declare them ahead of anything in the market. When you've looked through other stocks, see ours before you buy.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Oct. 12.-The Grand Lodge of Oddfellows met here to-day, presided over by Grand Master Klein, of Winchester. The address of welcome responded to by Mr. Klein. The principal feature of interest in to-day's proceedings was the amendment to the constitution adopted reducing initiation fees mouth Tribune explained at some length from twenty-five to fifteen dollars. A hot amendment was finally adopted by a vote of 133 to sixty-five. John Gannt led the fight for the amendment and Judge Durham the fight against it.

The Grand Lodge meets next year at Winchester.

The Daughters of Rebekah closed their meeting last night, after having elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Matilda Hartman, Henderson; Vice President, Mrs. Mary Lohstroh, Newport; Warden, Miss Ella Carr, Ashland; Secretary, Mrs. Minnie Ross, of Louisville.

The retiring President made several recommendations, the principal one being that the Grand Lodge of Daughters of Rebekah should be divorced from the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows, in so far as the time and place of meeting is concerned. As it is now they are restricted to the day previous, and must meet at the same place. She also thought there should be an organizer, who should devote his or her whole time to the work.

A resolution was passed embodying these recommendations, and the matter will be presented to the Grand Lodge in the form of a memorial.

The new officers elected are J. S. Gaunt, Carrollton, Grand Master; J. Whit Potter, Bowling Green, Deputy Grand Master; Charles Hess, Louisville, Grand Warden; George W. Morris, Louisville, Treasurer; R.G. Elliott, Lexington, Secretary; Claude Buckley, Louisville, Representa-

EVERY YEAR.

GENERAL ALBERT PIKE.

Life is a count of losses, Every year; For the weak are heavier crosses, Every year: Lost springs with sobs replying

I'nto weary Autumnssighing, While those we love are dying, Every year. The days have less of gladness,

Every year: The nights more weight of sadness Every year; Fair springs no longer charm us, The winds and weather harm us. The threats of death alarm us,

Every year.

There come new cares and sorrows. Every year: Dark days and darker morrows, Every year; The ghosts of dead loves haunt us, The ghosts of changed friends taunt us, And disappointments daunt us,

Every year. To the past go more ilead faces, Every year: As the loved leave vacant places, Every year;

Everywhere the sad eyes meet us, In the evening's dusk they greet us, Aud to come to them eutreat us, Every year.

"You are growing old," they tell us, "Every year 'You are more alone," they tell us, "Every year;

"You can win no new affection. "You have only recollection, "Deeper sorrow and dejection, "Every year."

Too true! Life's shores are shifting, Every year; And we are seaward driftling. Every year; Old places, changing, fret us, The living more forget us, There are fewer to regret us,

Every year. But the truer life draws nigher, Every year : And its morning-star climbs higher, Every year:

Earth's hold on us grows slighter. And the heavy burden lighter, And the dawn immortal brighter, Every year.

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritation to his dyspeptic friend. Const pation is the root of uine-tenths of the sickness of men and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse, matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pieasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any troubic. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way, There is nothing violent about their actiou, and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violeut. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. "What's that, mether?" he asked. He had never seeu a coffin.

"That's what they put little boys ln when they're naughty," said the mother. "That's the way God punishes."

Months passed. One day the restless feet went astray again, and the mother, in the moment of her extreme vexation, punished him more severely than usual.

"Don't put me in the white box, mother," he pleaded over and over again between his sobs.

So saying, he feil asleep. When he awoke, the fever was on him, and the pattering feet wandered away no more. Another week passed. Then the brown eyes looked up into hers, the pale lips quivered, and he said feebly:

"Have you got the white box, mother? Has God punlshed me yet?"

Two days later the carriages came, and bore him away in state. God's punishment had come.—Chicago Tribune.

Roman Epicures.

When at its zenith, the Roman empire laid ail the barbaric countries of the world under contribution to supply the tables of its nobies and wealthy citizens with the fine luxuries of life. Asia and Africa poured in the rlch spices and fruits of the tropics; Germnny and the great north countries raised the grains and wild berries; Itaiy and the fertile land of the Franks cultivated the vineyards to make or express the wines; every strip of seacoast from the Mediterranean to the Baltie contributed its quota of fish, and the forests of Brittany yielded the wiid game of the woods-birds, beasts and fowls-for the banquets of the proud, dissolute rulers of the vast empire. With the choice products of a great world so easi. ly obtained there were wanton waste, fooiish extravagance and a strange disregard of the value of expensive luxuries, and the historian dweiling upon these times delights in recapitulating the various articles of diet arranged in tempting manner upon the groaning ta-dies at the great leasts and banquets. But, excepting Nero's dish of peacock tongues and Cleopatra's cup of wine with the dissoived pearis in it, the mcnu of our modern banquets would compare favorably with those spread in the times when giuttony, licentiousness and greed for luxury were insidiously sapping the strength of Rome. - George E. Waish in Lippincott's.

Two Prime Ministers.

One day Sir Henry Purkes, the late prime minister for New South Waies, was reading a recently published life of Mr. Gladstone, and laying dewn the volume for a mement he said: "I was thinking when reading it of a comparison between Mr. Gladstone's life and my own. When he was at Eton preparing himself for Oxford, enjoying ali the advantages of a good education, with plenty of meney, and being trained in' every way for his future position as a statesman, I was working on a rope walk at 4 pence a day and suffered such cruel treatment that I was knocked down with a crowbar and did not recover my senses for half an hour. From the rope walk I went to labor in a brickyard, where I was again brutaily used, and when Mr. Gladstone was at Oxford I was breaking stones on the queen's highway, with hardly enough clothing to protect me from the cold." Truly a for Liverpool with 54,500 cases of striking and dramatic contrast between the early years of two prime ministers. -Pearson's Weekly.

GO TO THE JURY SATURDAY. The Defense Are Occupying All the Time of the Luetgert Trial. CHICAGO, Oct. 14.-The entire day ln the Luetgert trial was taken up by Attorney Phaien, who spoke for the defeuse. He made au impassioned plea for his client, accused the police of lntimidating the witnesses for the defense and denounced many of those who had appeared for the state as perjurers. He declared that the coil of circumstantial evidence on which Assistant State's Attorney McEwen had dweit at so great length during his address to the jury, was not a chain of ciroumstantial evidence at all, but a fragmentary coilection of distorted facts. He found flaws without number in the story furnished by the state, and deciared that no jury composed of sensible men would for a moment think of returning a verdict of guity on such evidence.

guiity on such evidence. He will continue to speak another day and will then be followed by Attorney Vincent for the defense, who wiii close the arguments in behalf of Luetgert.
